The Model 700 series of firearms are hunting rifles manufactured by Remington Arms since 1962. All are based on the large receiver, controlled bolt action. They come with a 1-4 or 5-round internal magazine which sometimes includes a floor plate for quick unloading, and sometimes is "blow" feeding (Navy Four-grain).

The Remington 700 comes in standard consumer versions as well as versions designed for military and police use. Some variants come with bipods, tripods and other accessories. Some Model 700 rifles are made with telescopic magazines, for faster reloading, such as the Puller model DA.
